(7 meetings have been held to date, and the following summary is complete through 6 December 1951).

1. At the Second Meeting of this Working Group, held on 25 October 1951, there was drawn up an agenda, arranged in numerical order of priority for study, to provide a structure around which the problem of career benefits to CIA employees can be most advantageously studied.
2. By Memorandum to Career Service Committee, dated 19 November 1951, re [REDACTED] for Staff Employees and Staff Agents," 25X1C
the subject Working Group recommended that [REDACTED] pay for appropriate trainees is necessary and desirable and presented six broad principles for consideration, with the recognition that such principles would require approval of the DCI and that detailed regulations necessarily must be devised upon such approval. The principal document of reference considered by the Working Group pertaining to this subject is the memorandum from the Assistant Director of Training (Covert) to the Joint Training Committee, dated 18 September 1951. [In the event the Career Service Committee approved recommendations set forth in Memorandum of 19 November, it was suggested that implementing regulations be drafted by the Advisor for Management, in coordination with the Office of the Comptroller and the Office of Personnel.

By Memorandum to Chairman, Career Service Committee, dated 29 November 1951, re "Continuance of Pay and Allowances," subject the Working Group suggested that, through an appropriate method, the benefits of the Missing Persons Act, or similar provisions, be made available to all employees of CIA. Along this same line is to be considered S. 1820, which is to accomplish the same purposes of the Missing Persons Act, which will expire as a wartime statute upon ratification by the Senate of the Japanese Peace Treaty. Recommendation was made that CIA support S. 1820. Since it is obvious that the progress of the
